Chief Engineer Farrar.

Paces.

-Mr. Farrar Miraculously Unhurt-

He fired at Mr. Farrar from behind as he was going up the stairway adjoining the Coroner's office with a 32-calibre revolver at

The bullet passed through the clothing of Mr. Farrar just above the right hip and came within a quarter of an inch of inflicting what probably would have been a mortal wound.

As soon as the shot was fired Bridge Po-about ten feet range.

six years and has a family.

Pretty Little Flowelle Wason Asking for Alimony and Counsel Fees.

Flouelle Presby Wason, daughter of W. A.

Presby, the wealthy White street dry-goods man and child wife of George Ernest Wason, her father, as her guardian.

Her affidavits set forth several lines of stocks owned by her husband, valued altogether at $500,000 and yielding an income of #12,000. She sets up a counter charge against her husband that he was too intimate.

against her husband that he was do intimate, while she was in confinement, with Maggie Crimmins, her maid, and she denies his allegation that she was too friendly with a Mr. Leunon, at the Hotel Hamilton or elsewhere, and says that the family expenses were never and says that the family expenses were never less than $500 a month.

In opposing the application William H. Andrews declared that the stocks and other property named are valueless; that the property is in trust till the death of Wason's mother; that he is $20,000 in debt; that household expenses were $550 a month, except when Mother in law Presby and other of his wife's relatives were visiting his house; that he never had anything to do with Maggie Cummins, and that he ought not to pay alimony at all.

Justice Patterson reserved his decision.

CROSBY'S ELECTORAL REFORM BILL.

Candidates Must Account for Money They Spend-New Municipal Building.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

ALBANY, Jan. 17 .- Mr. Crosby, of New York, introduced an important bill to-day, which is in some manner a supplement to

It provides that all candidates for political election, within ten days after the election, shall file with the Secretary of the State a

IS IT A SIGNAL OF DISTRESS?

A Side-Wheel Steamer Apparently Disabled

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD,]

PORT JEFFERSON, L. I., Jan. 17 .- There is

Mr. Saxton's famous Electoral Reform bill.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, JANUARY 17, 1889.

PRICE ONE CENT.

IS FAN FRIGHTENED?

The New Spook Priestess Said to Fear Ann O'Delia's Fate.

Just Possible that She May Leave the City.

A Visit to Her Elegant Quarters by an " Evening World " Reporter.

Mrs. Fannie Stryker, the Spiritualist who is alleged to have Stationer George Carroll in her toils, was at home in the elegant Lenox Hill apartment-house No. 987 Madison avenue when an Evenino World young man went there this morning, but she declined to be seen or interviewed.

The pretty maid who told the reporter so, volunteered the information that Mr. Stryker would not be seen either, and that it was useless to ask for Mr. Carroll, as he had gone downtown.

Then she slammed the door with a very material slam in his face, and the young man went out into the cold rain again, haunted by the recollection of the luxury he had seen dis-played in the spook woman's home. For a woman who once lived on the top floor in a shabby house in Brooklyn ahe is rolling high now. Her suite of rooms is on the ground floor, ings.

In the outer room where the reporter

In the outer room where the reporter waited Mrs. Stryker's answer, there is a life-size picture of her, in a massive gilt frame, on the bottom of which is inscribed the words, "Our Chosen One."

This was a present to her frem some of her Spiritualistic friends. Divans, ottomans, easy-chairs, expensive bric-a-brac and furniture of the most costly kind are scattered throughout the rooms.

It must have cost thousands of dollars to fit them up so lavishly. Judged by her picture, the priestess is a rather good-looking, middle-aged brunette. She is inclined to grow fat like that other celebrated priestess, Ann O'Delia, &c., Dis Debarr.

The gentleman who is Mis. Stryker's husband is an intelligent-looking man, about thirty-five years old. He denies that his better half picked Mr. Carroll up on Broadway with the remark, "The spirit of your son is hovering over your head, calling 'Pop.'"

He says that Mr. Carroll, while still only an investigator in the realms of Spiritualism, asked Prof. Kiddle, late Superintendent of Public Schools in this city, to direct him to an honest medium whom he could rely upon. Mr. Kiddle, a believer, sent him to Mrs. Siryker, who was then living at 12 Hanover street, Brooklyn. That was in 1884, shortly after the death of young Carroll.

WHEN THE PRIESTESS WENT OUT WASHING. Those were the dark days, when it has been said that Mrs. Stryker used to go out washing, while her husband worked as a porter in Wechsler & Abraham's dry-goods store.

Mr. Carroil's object in visiting Mrs. Stryker was to get a communication from his dead

"Did he get it?" Mr. Stryker was asked. "I cannot say positively." was his answer.
"My wife says he did, and he thinks he did, so I guess it must be so."

THE METROPOLITAN CHURCH OF HUMANITY. In May, 1884, the Strykers moved to 119 East Twenty-eighth street, this city, where they established the Metropolitan Church of Humanity. Services were held every Sun-

Humanity. Services were held every Sunday morning.

Mrs. Stryker, whose name is Fanny, was the prestess, and led in singing spook songs. After service she generally gave a seance, and charged right royally for it, too.

There were about thirty-five steady worshippers at her shrine, among them Luther Marsb. Ann O'D's friend: ex-Judge Dailey, of Brooklyn: Rev. Titus Merritt, L. W. Massett, Prof. Kiddle and the star attraction, Mr. Carroll.

An unbeliever, who used to know Mrs.

An unbeliever, who used to know Mrs. Stryker well in those times, gave The Even-ing World reporter some interesting in-formation about her and her doings this morning. He said:

THE MEDIUM'S HISTORY.

"Fannie Stryker was Fanny Taylor, before she married. She lived in Jersey City and was quite a belle there. "She betrayed no Spiritualistic tenden-

"After she became acquainted with the latter she had herself duly licensed as the Priest of the Church of Humanity, and when she came to Gotham she was prepared to preach, bury, marry and baptize.

SHE OFFICIATED AT FUNERALS. "She did officiate at the funeral of Miss Bertie Gale in 1884, and married Dr. James Norris, a physician, of New Jersey, to a most catimable young lady."

"Was this marriage alone considered bind-ing?" asked the reporter.

"It was by the Spiritualists, but whether it would stand in a court of law or not I don't know." he answered.

know," he answered.
"When did Mrs. Stryker begin to make money?" he was asked.

WHERE DID SHE GET THE MONEY?

WHERE DID SHE OET THE MONEY?

"Ever since she met Mr. Carroll. He can may what he likes, but I know that he has given her large sums of money, be it for board or whatever you will, and has done all in his power to have her succeed in life.

"Cotton stockings were good enough for her in Brooklyn, but after she got in this town with a weslthy man to back her, her taste became more cultivated. She developed a weakness for lace hosiery and velvet costumes, instead of her calico gowns and rich street dresses.

"She did not really begin to roll high though until the Temple was secured for her at 251 West Twenty-third street.

"Mr. Carroll denies that there was any such temple there," interjected the reporters.

THERE WAS A TEMPLE. "He can deny it as much as he pleases, but the temple was there. It was named 'The Temple of Humanity,' and, if I can remember aright, the incorporators were Jim Campbell, of Kansas City; Major Oliver

Russell, a brother-in-law of the late Gen. W. days she remains at home or goes to college in the carriage. NO: ANN O'DELIA WASN'T ADMITTED.

"Was the Diss Debar an attendant there?" asked the reporter.

"No. I don't think she was ever inside the temple. You see, she and Fannie being in the same business led to a very hostile feeling between them, and I don't suppose Ann would go to the Temple of Humanity on Twenty-third street any more than Fanny would venture into Ann's Madison avenue temple when she got it.

"I know, though, that Aun's Lawyer Marsh used to visit the Temple of Humanity, and I think that Stationer Carroll used to go to Ann's Madison avenue shrine.

Each of the gentlemen had, however, the most implicit confidence in his own particular medium, and could not be weaned away by her rival."

"Were there services held frequently in the Twenty-third street house?" asked the reporter. Was the Diss Debar an attendant there?"

AS OFTEN AS WERE PROFITABLE. 'As often as Mrs. Stryker could give a paying scance she did so. There was at least one meeting a week, every Wednesday right.

"Some of the unbelievers in the neighborhood used to go to these Wednesday evenings, and the 'circus' paid them well for their trouble.

PRIESTESS FAN AS "JACK THE TRAMP." "I remember going there one Wednesday night, in response to an urgent invitation from Fannie. She took the part of Jack the Tramp that night, an outcast who had died some years before in Philadelphia.

"She met him while in a trance in spirit land. They seemed to be all broke up on each other.

each other.

"She was dressed that night out of all proportion to the part she exacted, but she explained afterwards that she did not know explained afterwards that she did not know when going into the trance that she was going to be asked to impersonate Jack."

"Who asked her to do so?"
"Jack, I suppose. They met on the silvery shores, I guess, and he must have induced her to show her friends what a poor worthless devil he was when alive.
"Despite the fact of her being dressed like a society queen, in evening dress, lace, hosiery and kid slippers, she gave a great representation of a frowsy bum.

CHEWED A PIECE OF GUM, TOO. "While in that trance, in order to be true to life, she imitated Jack in his great act of masticating a borrowed chew of tobacco. She stuck a piece of chewing gum in her cheek to represent a good-sized quid, and then she expectorated lavishly in all directions, just as Jack used to do before he got the measles and died.

and died.

"She apologized to the company when her spirit got back to New York for having to do Jack in skirts and petticoats instead of

SHE SCORNED TO ANSWER THIS.

"An unbeliever asked her why she didn't borrow Johnny's, but she paid no attention to the rude question.

"She did tell her friends, though, that Jack the Tramp was receiving a good education in spirit land preparatory to being admitted to the inner circle of spirits, and — me if those fanatics didn't believe every word she said as if it was Gospel truth.

"Have you seen her lately?" the gentleman was asked.

"Yes. I saw her last night. I kind of lost track of her arter she left Twenty third street, but I went up to see her last night, for I like her and would give her a helping hand if she needed it."

"Do you think she does?" Do you think she does?"

MES. STRYKER MUCH FRIGHTENED. "Well, I don't know. She is frightened. I can tell you. She is afraid that there will be an effort to send her on the Island, like Ann O'Delia. WILL SHE LEAVE TOWN ?

They ascribed it to a desire on the part of the pretty priestess for less publicity. Then? as she became more successful, she became more exclusive. She would scorn to give a $2 seance since she performed the extraordinary feat of marrying Stationer Carroll's son to the spirit Bright Eyes.

Mr. Carroll is still boarding with Mrs. Stryker. They do not explain how their address in the Directory, came to be given as dress in the Directory came to be given as 987 Lexington avenue instead of Madison A well-known baker lives at the former address, and he says he has been driven nearly crazy by messages, bundles, Spiritualists and letters for the Strykers.

AN UPTOWN TEMPLE.

When they went uptown to live Mr. Carroll, his friends say, hired a neat little hall at Madison avenue and Fifty-ninth street, where the priestess could go Sunday mornings to preach and pray to the select few.

Stationer Carroll paid the freight, which was at the rate of $15 a week for the hall alone.

Mr. Carroll is an earnest and consciention Mr. Carroll is an earnest and conscientions believer in Spiritualism. People who used to see him at these Sunday morning services say that he always occupied a seat well up in front, where he would sit as if in a trance, gazing upward, as if he could really see the spirit form of his beloved son.

The boy's death, it is said, caused him to fall an easy victim to Mrs. Stryker's wiles.

was quite a belle there.

"She betrayed no Spiritualistic tendencies, and was vary popular with both sexes, especially the male. She went to Brooklyn after her marriage, and found that she was a medium some time in 1881.

"About two years later she made the acquaintance of Mr. Dailey and worked him as well as she could, but he never 'gave up' as royally as Carroll has done.

"After she became acquainted with the that had herself duly licensed as the had herself duly licensed as the are always sublime, arrangement of beautiful and when the second of the sec

The Meigs Sisters, a quartet of beautiful singers, appeared at the Madison Avenue Tabernscle at intervals, as they had frequently done in Twenty-third street.

Mrs. Stryker always ended the service by going into a trance, with a flush upon her pretty face and, in the words of a witness, "the graceful and extravagant poses she assumed would drive an angel mad."

HAD THE POX SISTERS THERE. Upon two or three occasions the celebrated Fox sisters, who forty years ago first sprang Spiritualism upon an unsuspecting public, were present.

That was in the Fall and Winter of 1887, when they still made believe to be believers, although since then they have gone upon the stage and "exposed" the system of Spiritualism, frankly admitting that it is all a "fake." NO SERVICE SINCE MAY.

There has been no service held since the 7th of May last. This was probably on account of Diss De Bar's mishap, which probably frightened Stryker somewhat.

Some people say the church has been practically closed. Others think and hope that it will be account.

STUDYING MEDICINE NOW. Since she stopped preaching the Priestess has taken to studying medicine. For the past six months she has been a steady attendant at the Fifteenth Street Eclectic Medical College. She leid in a stock of books and papers, and can be seen any fine morning trotting off to school between 5 and 9 o'clock.

She returns home about noon. Stormy TOBIAS STOPS AT HOME. Meantime Mrs. Stryker's husband stays at home and complains about "my kidneys" prevents him from following his profession of wheeling a porter's truck in some dry-

MR. CARROLL NOT AT HIS OFFICE. MR. CARROLL NOT AT HIS OFFICE.

When The Evening World reporter called at 38 East Fourteenth street this morning a clerk said that Mr. Carroll had not been there. This was true. Mr. Carroll had spent the morning with Lawyer Levy conning over the various newspaper reports of the spook marriage and selecting those which contained libellous allegations. Mr. Levy greeted the reporter courteously. He said that Mr. Carroll did not care to be seen.

seen.
"Will Mr. Carroll make a statement to day?" inquired the reporter.
"He will not."

"Is this by your advice?"

"It is. I and, in fact, Mr. Carroll, both of us, have been courteous to the press and talked freely. Now we are going to shut right up."
"Might I inquire Mr. Carroll's business here this morning?"

A LIBEL SUIT FOR $50,000. "Yes. We are arranging a libel suit against "Yes. We are arranging a paper."

For what amount?"

About $50,000."

What constitutes the libel?"

It charges that Mr. Carroll had his wife incarcerated in an insane asylum in order that he might live with this woman Stryker. That's one part of the complaint.

WED WHILE SHE WAS DYING.

POOR SOLACE FOR KITTY CODY'S BLIGHTED LIFE.

The body of Mrs. Frank Dudgeon lay in a easket at 124 Flatbush avenue, Brooklyn, today, while relatives of the dead girl sat around it, bewailing the sad ending of a blighted life.

The body was neatly covered by a white satin robe, and rested in a black, cloth-covered, silver-mounted casket.

Coroner Rooney called in the forenoon, and after viewing the remains gave a permit for their removal. They will be taken to Locust Valley, and will be interred in the village cemetery to-morrow. The story of Kitty Cody's marriage while on her deathbed to young Frank Dudgeon, on her deathed to young Frank Dudgeon.

as told in last night's Evening World, was the all-absorbing topic of conversation in Brooklyn this morning.

Au Evening World reporter called at the residence of Rev. H. B. Kendig, pastor of the Hanson Place Methodist Church, and obtained a true statement of the marriage ceretained a true statement of the marriage of the mony:

"I had just finished conducting a children's prayer-meeting, and was getting ready to go home, when the sexton told me that I was needed at 124 Flatbush'avenue to perform a marriage ceremony. He told me that one of the parties was dving, and I started over. As I reached the house, I was met by two gentlemen, one of whom asked me if I had come to perform the ceremony.

come to perform the ceremony.

"I said that I had, and he conducted me upstairs. When I entered the room I was introduced to Mr. Dudgeon, and was informed that he was the gentleman who wished to be married. The bride was very

ick. I sat down and filled out the certificate. "I would not be surprised to hear of her jumping the town if this matter is agitated much more," he concluded.

Several Spiritualists who used to attend the temple on Twenty-third street were seen this morning and asked:

"Why was the Temple abandoned?"

They sacribed it to a desire on the part of the sacrate of the signed by the girl. When he returned I was taken into the sick-room to perform the ceremony.

"When I entered I saw the girl lying in the sacrate of the when I entered I saw the girl lying in bed. There was sufficient light in the room to enable me to see that she was very pretty. I sad to Dr. Hall, who was in the room: 'This is a case of crime.' 'No, it is not,' he answered, and then he told me he was the family physician of both families. Upon his statement that everything was all right, and upon the ground that if it was a case of crime it was better the woman should die a wife, I married them. The young woman answered all the questions in a low voice and I saw that she was sinking. 'During the ceremony both Dr. Hall and Mr. Dudgeon were much affected, Dr. Hall wiping his cyes several times. The men retred and two ladies came in. I prayed with the girl, but she was so low that she did not respond. I did not know any of the parties, and so far as I am aware, they didn't attend my church. There was sufficient light in the room

"I was the nearest clergyman, and that, I think, was the only reason why they sent for Mccording to the story told by Mrs. Harri-man and other interested parties, Dudgeon had wanted to marry the girl for some time Miss Cody was twenty-one years old and had lived at Oyster Bay, while Mr. Dudgeon is thirty, a widower, and has lived at Locust Valley. He is said to be quite wealthy and waitey. He is said to be quite weatrly and somewhat of a sport.

He had known the girl for several years. It is only recently that he became intimate with her. Miss Cody lived in New York, and worked at dressmaking.

worked at dressmaking.

About three weeks ago Dudgeon came to Mrs. Harriman, whom he had known for eight years, and told her that Kitty wanted to move to Brooklyn in order to obtain a better situation. Mrs. Harriman consented to receive the young woman, and she moved over a few days later. Several days after she had installed herself in the flat she confided to the housekeeper that she had been in trouble and had maltreated herself. Mrs. Harriman told her it was very wroug, but she did not feel much concerned over the matter, as the girl was bright and spry.

Last Thursday the girl was taken sick and Mr. Dudgeon was notified. The latter

Last Thursday the girl was taken sick and Mr. Dudgeon was notified. The latter brought Dr. Frank Hall, a Glen Cove physician and one of the coroners of Queens County, to the house. The doctor made an examination and gave it as his opinion that the girl was suffering from her own folly.

The girl grew worse, and on Tuesday afternoon Drs. Woodruff and Smith were called in for consultation. They found her very low. All these days Dudgeou had been coaxing her to marry him, and when she was told she was about to die she consented to the ceremony.

The clergyman was then called and the ceremony was performed. During the night the girl sank rapidly, and shortly after 6 o'clock yesterday she died.

A letter is shown by Mr. Dudgeon, which he claims was given to him on Monday by his deceased wife. It was dated Jan. 15, and exculpates him from any criminal responsi-bility.

All the physicians in the case have been ordered to make written reports.

Cocking Main in Massachusetts. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.;
WEYMOUTH, Mass., Jan. 17.—Eight battles between game fowl from Abington and Rock-land took place here early this morning. Abing-ton won six out of the eight, including a main of five fights for a purse of $100. Several hun-dred dellars changed hands on the result.

AFTER MR. BABCOCK KILLED IN AFRICA. SHOT ON THE BRIDGE

Maids and Spinsters Offer to Marry Another Massacre of the German A Discharged Man Tries to Kill Him for Cash.

Some of the Epistles Received Eight Men and Women Murdered He Lay in Wait and Fired at Ten by the Money-Afflicted Man.

and Others Write for Fun-

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Jan. 17. -Readers of THE EVENING WORLD have already been made acquainted with the unfortunate position of Bachelor Babcock "-John L. by namewho, according to the will of an eccentric uncle, must marry within five years or forfeit | tacked. $500,000 of the aforesaid uncle's estate.

As the Evening World in a recent issue published a truthful description of Mr. Babcock's personal appearance, it is not necessary to inform the surplus of spinsters that he is anything but an Adonis. But the girls are after him in and out of season. By their own declaration over one thousand fair ones stand ready to accept Babcock and his boodle. They reside all over the United States. There are school teachers and variety actresses among them; widowed washerwomen and genteel garls; ladies who have passed the age which is attractive, and tender buds whose mothers evidently do not know what their offspring are about.

Most of them are perfectly honest. They admit that they don't care two cents for Babcock: don't want to live with him as his wife, have no use for anything but his money and will cheerfully agree to any terms he has to propose.

Some offer to take as low as $5,000 to marry him, thus asking him to fulfil the terms of the will, and then to leave him forever, while others think $50,000 would be about right for the sacrifice they propose to make. make.

Every mail brings fresh proposals. They are arriving at the rate of 200 a week and threaten to increase to 500.

Mr. Babcock has employed two private secretaries and a shorthand writer to enable him to answer his fair correspondents, which signatures are withheld.

Mr. Babcock generally says: "Many of these letter writers are foolish women, whom I do not wish to damage by publishing their folly."

This much can be said, and it may have the This much can be said, and it may have the result of lessening the bulk of the bachelors' mail. He is not under the necessity of going outside of Ann Arbor or Detroit—certainly not outside of Michigan—for a wife, and is not at all likely to accept the proposal of any one of the thousands who have written him from Maine to Mexico.

That he intends to comply with the provisions of the will there is no doubt, and he will ions of the will there is no doubt, and he will soon begin the erection of a handsome resi-dence near the Ann Arbor University. Here are copies of extracts of some of the letters: are copies of extracts of some of the letters:

BROOKLYN, N. Y. Jan. 1.—In order to regain my class-ring which was offered to a game of "Forfeits." I have to pay the penalty, which was to write and offer myself to J. L. Bahcock, who is looking for a wife. So, then, to begin with, I am small, quite ugly, red-headed, have a bad temper, am lazy and saucy, well educated, an excellent musician, pretty good housewife, with a sharp sye—color, green or gray—for business, eighteen years four months four days old. My mother is dead and my father is very cross and will not let go out. So I have to stay at home like a great baby.

go out. So I have to stay at home like a great baby.

Warham, Mass., Jan. 9.

Mr. Barcock: Here is one more letter from the Massachusetts surplus. If you are not too bitter a pill to take I will help protect you from the many lambs auxious to be taken into the fold. Understand I do this from a sense of duty and not from greed.

The foregoing are fair samples of scores of letters whose overtures are actuated evidently by a spirit of fun.

But most of the epistles are very serious and the writers apparently dead in earnest.

This one is all the way from San Fran-

I am the oldest of four children. If you have nade your choice perhaps you know of some other gentleman friend who wants a wife. From Crystal Springs, Mass., comes this one:

I have heard a great deal about you, and to say I am pleased with you does not express my feelings. What is the shape of your head? Your complexion? Oh. Mr. Babcock, do you chew tobacco? I know I am all your heart could wish. I have a rich cream complexion that would charm the soul and paralyze the intellect. What is your ideal woman? I would practise until I reached perfection.

A Detroit young lady writes: Ms. Babcock: I hope you will place me on the list of fair suitors for your hand. I can paint, play the piano and guitar nicely, and am proficient in the arts of housekeeping. Here is one all business from New York

The writer of this is a young business lady who has been accustomed to the best society. Hope you will give the undersigned a chance in the great lottery of love.

There is an occasional indignant protest received from some fair correspondent who s shocked at the foolishness of her sex in offering themselves as a sacrifice on the altar f matrimony.

A lady said to occupy a prominent position

Indianapolis society is the author of the following : I am really very much ashamed of my sex, to think our American women would propose mar-riage to a gentleman for his wealth. I presume they will love your pocketbook and respect you. Another lady from Galena, Ill., under the date of Jan. 13, writes as follows

Allow me to extend to you my heartfelt sympathy for the persecution which you are subjected to by my sex. I should advise you if you do not wish to become a Benedict, to divide the spoils among the fair applicants. An Imperial Souvenir IBY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. BERLIN, Jan. 17.—The Emperor William has presented a set of special colors to the Russian Regiment, of which he is honorary colonel.

"Why Do I Suffer So

with headache and vertigo, doctor? I have a bad cough, too, and dull aches under the shoulder-blades; I'm losing weight, and am bilious all the time." The courteous physician answers: "If you inquire what is the cause of all this mischief, it is a torpid liver. That organ, you are aware, is the largest gland in the body, and its office is to carry off the waste of the system. When it fails to do its proper work, the refuse of the body is reabsorbed and goes circulating round and round in the blood, poisoning, not nourishing, the tissues. But why you continue to suffer in this way I am at a loss to understand, since Ds. Pizace's Golpen Medical Discovery would give prompt relief and future immunity from such attacks."

Missionaries.

One Brooklyn Girl Pays a "Forfeit" Further Particulars of the Recent Attack at Dar-es-Salem, and Their Bodies Mutilated.

LONDON, Jan. 17 .- A despatch from Zanzibar gives details of another outbreak of the engineer of the Brooklyn Bridge Freezing natives with most shocking results. and Storage Company, at the New York entrance of the Bridge, shortly after noon to-

The affair occurred last Sunday when the German mission station at Tuju was at-

Eight missionaries, men and women, were nassacred and their bodies horribly mutilated. The slaves and servants were taken prisoners. The news caused a painful sensation Zanzibar. The Germans are enraged and clamor for revenge.

Additional particulars of the attack on Dar-is-Salem, which took place last Friday, are at hand.

As soon as the shot was fired Bridge Policeman Joseph Taylor, who was standing at the bottom of the stairway, and within two feet of Dempsey, grabbed the arm of the would be assassin just as he was getting ready to fire a second time.

After a short struggle he succeeded in wrenching the weapon from Dempsey's grasp and had pinioned him against the wall. Meanwhile a big crowd had collected, the report of the shot having been heard a considerable distance in the vicinity, and for a few minutes the excitement was intense.

Mr. Farrar, as soon as he felt the bullet pass through his clothing, gave a glance behind, and with a cry of alarm ran up the stairway and disappeared. He was brought back trembling and nervous a few minutes later by one of the Bridge policemen, and, together The station was unguarded, and contained hree male and two female missionaries and 100 natives who had been freed from slavery. One of the missionaries was severely wounded, but managed to escape to the terman man-of-war Mowe. All the others were captured and sold into lavery in the interior. The Mowe bombarded the town, but did oo harm to the insurgents.

The Apti-Slavery Crusade. VIENNA, Jan. 17 .- A great meeting in favor of he anti-slavery crusade of the Cardinal Lavigerie was held in this city yesterday. Prince Wrede and Father Angeli made eloquent ad-dresses. A committee was nominated to organ-ize an anti-slavery society.

GEN. MAHONE WANTS TO BE P. M. G. He Has an Opinion of Harrison and Also

One of Blaine. SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 17. -Gen. William Mahone, of Virginia, is here. He stated today that he wanted to be Postmaster-General in Harrison's Cabinet, because it would suit im better than any other place.

"That would put me in a position to look after matters affecting Southern people," said he, "and enable me to illustrate my concern in Southern affairs. "I could, in conducting the Post-Office, make many provisions for our people which would not be afforded me as directly in any would not be afforded me as directly in any other place."

In giving his opinion of the President-elect, Gen. Mahone said he was a clear-headed man of rather judicual habits, and while not brilliant, he was a sound man, and was not likely to express his views of important National topics or prematurely announce his Cabinet. When asked if Hlaine would be in the C binet, Gen. Mahone answered: "His friends, who are the greed of the party, want him there for purposes of their own. It isn't Blaine so much as it is a representation of the interests they seek. It is the monopolists who are his supporters."

ho are his supporters. WAGENHURST SUCCEEDS WARD.

The Young Princeton Contain to Be Tried Among the Giants. Elwood O. Wagenhurst has become a Giant. Manager Mutrie closed his negotiations to who is the grandson and heir of the founder this end yesterday, and Wagenhurst will be of the Wason Manufacturing Co., of Springgiven at least a trial in the place lately filled by John Montgomery Ward. The new shortstop is a young and ambiious player, and attracted attention first by his brilliant work with the Princeton College team, of which he was captain. He covered third base for the Philadelpia team during the latter part of last sesson. Harry Wright was much impressed with Wagenhurst's showing and Manager Mutrie is confident that his new man will prove a Wagenhurst is twenty-three years old. 5 feet 10 inches in height, weighs 165 pounds, is of powerful build, throws well and has been a heavy hitter.

REPORTERS AND EXECUTIONS. Mr. Linson's Amendment Which Allows

Newspapers Men Certain Privileges. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 17.-Mr. Lipson introfuced in the Senate this morning an amendment to the laws relating to the infliction of the death penalty. It allows to be present at public executions besides the persons provided for in the original measure, twelve others to be selected by the Warden of the prison in which the condemned man is confined.

This grants admission to reporters, a privilege which was not granted in Mr. Gerry's bill.

OUR CHAMPION SKATER.

Young Denoghue, of Newburg, N. Y., Wins a Heat at Hamburg, Germany.

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD. Hamnung, Jan. 17.-The American skater, Joseph F. Donoghue, of Newburg, N. Y., has added new laurels to his wreath by winning the Ladies Gold Cup in the international race. He covered the five miles in 16m. 45s., breaking all records by thirty-two seconds. shall file with the Secretary of the State a statement of their election expenses.

Another bill introduced by Mr. Crosby authorizes the authorities of New York to build the new municipal building in the City Hall Park on the site at the northeast corner of the park. He presented this bill at the request of Mayor Grant, who is anxious to get the new building under way.

QUARANTINE COMMISSIONERS.

Charles F. Allen and George W. Anderson Reappointed by Gov. Hill.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 17 .- Gov. Hill this morning sent to the Legislature the reanpointments of Chas. F. Allen and George W. Anderson as Quarantine Commissioners,

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
ELIEABETH, N. J., Jan. 17,—Professor of large side-wheel steamer lying off this point Boxing Harry Lavin, of Elizabeth, at one time a famous light-weight English boxer, and whose sporting-house on Third street, this city is the headquarters of the puglistic fraternity, died suddenly during the night,

The Guttenburg Flyers Ridden to prises for the Talent.

Wayward's Owner and Jockey Ruled

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] NORTH HUDSON DRIVING PARK, N. J., Jan. 17. -The inclement weather reduced the attendance somewhat at Guttenburg to-day. The rain ceased as the horses went to post for the first race. The track, though not deep in mud, was very sloppy, and it was hard to distinguish the rear jockeys when they had finished. Henry B, was made a hot favorite for the first race, and won easily. Wayward however, ran race, in winning at the odds of 10 to 1.

First race.

Purse $200, of which $50 to second; welter weights; selling allowances; one mile.

Henry B. 130 (M. J. Lynch) 1.

Charley Russell, 127 (McClay) 2.

Wayward, 130 (English) 6.

Time—1.5018;

Vancluse, Mabel colt and Havana also ran.

The Race.—Henry B. led from start to finish and won easily by three lengths, Charley Russell second, the same distance in, front of Wayward.

Betting—5 to 4 on Henry B. to win, 5 to 2 on for a place and 4 to 1 against Charley Russell for a place, $2.60. Charley Russell paid $8.85.

SECOND BACE.

SECOND BACK.

Nankipoo, 107. (Church) 1
Flush, 110. (Tribe) 2
Landseer, 110. (H. Penny) 3
Time—1, 30 %.
Major, Socks, Stringban and Joe Pierson also

Time—2.0845.
Tenacious, Quincy and Trueborn also ran.
The Race.—Dago took the lead at the start and was never headed, winning by four longths.
Amos was six lengths in front of Bela.
Betting—8 to 1 against Dago to win, 3 to 1 for a place, and Amos barred for a place. Mutuels paid: Straight, $35.45; for a place, $6.70.
Amos paid $3.15.
FIFTH RACE.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.)
CLISTON RACE TRACK, Jan. 17.—The follow-

But He Denies That He Is Sharpening His Axe-Looking Into Abuses.

statements which he never uttered. He told an Evening World reporter this morning that he had never said that recom-

Appraiser Stearns was very busy this morning examin ng invoices and trying to find out why so large a quantity of goods should be detained in store instead of being turned over to the consignee, and why there should be any delay in making examinations.

The work of going through all the invoices is a teclous one, and will undoubtedly take several days. Meanwhile, so far as he is able to foresee, there will be no changes made, and he is not in a position to make any recommendations.

and he is not in a position to make any recommendations.

With regard to the report that a permanent successor to Mr. McMullen will be named by the Secretary of the Treasury, no information could be obtained either at the Custom-House or at the Appraiser's stores. The Treasury Agents knew nothing about it, and Mr. Stearns said he was not aware that the Secretary had any intention of appointing a successor.

The general opinion among the officials is that Mr. Stearns will remain in charge of the Appraiser's Office at this port until the close of the present administration.

ALL THE LATEST NEW

Nankipoo and Dago Proved Sur-

Off the Track.

a very suspicious race, at least the judges thought so, and ruled off the horse, Jockey English and the owner, E. Cantwell.
Cracksman was made favorite for the second, and after the flag fell the race was never in doubt, and Cracksman won in a canter. Nankipoo gave the talent a set-back in the third race, in winning at the odds of 10 to 1.

trembling and nervous a few minutes later by one of the Bridge policemen, and, together with the prisoner Dempsey, they went to the Oak street station together.

Dempsey was locked up on the charge of assault with attempt to kill.

It then came out that Dempsey had been employed as fireman at the Freezing and Storage Company's office, which is Arcade Nos. 3 and 4 of the bridge, on Frankfort street for two years past.

Nos. 3 and 4 of the bridge, on Frankfort street for two years past.

He was fifty years old and lived in Linwood street, Brooklyn, between Liberty and Atlantic streets. Two weeks ago he was discharged for incompetence and was sent away by Enpineer Farrer after receiving his week's wages, which were $15.

He made no threats at the time and has never been seen at the office since.

At noon to-day Mr. Farrar started for his home, No. 59 Meadow street, Brooklyn, for dinner, and did not see Dempsey till after the shot was fired, and he turned around on the stairway to see the man cocking his revolver to fire a second shot.

When Officer Taylor had overpowered Dempsey his first question was:

"What are you trying to do?"

"I want to kill that ______," replied Dempsey. "He discharged me and I'll have SECOND RACE.

Purse $250, of which $50 to second, for three-year-olds and upward; three-quarters of a mile. Cracksman, 100. (W. Doane) 1 Englewood, 112. (Bergen) 2 Duke of Bourbon, 115. (Church) 3 Time—1,23.

Tep Rookh, Milson, Dr. Jekyll and Servia also ran.

The Race.—They were sent away at the second break, with Cracksman in front. He made all the running and won under a pull by three lengths. Englewood beat Duke of Bourbon for the place by a head.

Betting—8 to 5 against Cracksman to win, 2 to 1 for a place and 9 to 5 against Englewood for a place. Mutuels paid: Straight, $4, 90; for the place, $3, 45. Englewood paid $4, 50.

THIRD SACE.

Purse $200, of which $50 to second; for eaten horses; selling allowances; seven fur-I want to kill that "replied Demosey, "He discharged me and I'll have his life."
"Don't you think that's a small thing to shoot a man for?"
"I don't care, him, I want his blood," was the reply.

blood," was the reply.

Mr. Farrar, after making the complaint at the Oak street station, returned to his office, and then started again for his home in Brooklyn.

He said he was very much surprised at the attack upon him, for he had always treated Dempsev kindly, and was sorry to be obliged to discharge him. He is a man of about fifty-six years and has a family. Major, Socks, Stringban and Joe Pierson also ran.

The Race.—After missing a good start, they were sent away with Landscer in front, and he led for a furiong, after which Nankipoo took up the running and won by a length from Flush, who was ten lengthis before Landscer.

Betting—10 to 1 against Nankipoo too win, 4 to 1 for a place, and Flush barred for a place. Mutuels paid: Straight, $12.45; for a place. $7. Flush paid $3.95.

FOURTH RACE.

Purse $250, of which $50 to second; selling allowances; mile and a furiong.

Dago, 104.

Amos, 112.

Bela, 110.

Time—2.9845.

Tenacious, Quincy and Trueborn also ran.

field, Mass., was in Supreme Court Cham-bers to-day with handsome Abe Hummell to PHTH RACE.

Purse $200, of which $50 to second; selling allowances; three-quarters of a mile.

Bloss, 114 (Doane) 1

His Grace, 112 (Hueston) 2

Ben Thompson, 120 (H, Penny) 3

Time—1, 24%

Mutuels paid: Straight, $8.65; for a place, $10.05. His Grace paid $10.05. ask for alimony, and counsel fees wherewith to defend the divorce suit brought by her nusband. nusband.

She is pretty, frail and girlish. She was fourteen when she married and her husband was an eighteen-year-old school boy. They are three years older now.

Mrs. Wason was chaperoned by her sister Mrs. Gomez, and she defends in the name of the father as her guardien.

Clifton Entries for To-Morrow.

ng are the Clifton entries for Friday, Jan. 18: ing are the Chiton entries for Fiday, san. 16;
First Race-Purse $250, three-quarters of a mile;
selling allowances - Battersby, 110; Silver Star, 110;
Capulne, 110; Courtier, 107; Mattie Looran, 108;
Arceph, 105; Easterbok, 105; Lorris, 103; Falsta, 100; Masie, 100; B.
Second Race-Purse $250; six and one-half furlouse; selling allowances - Harwood, 137; Granita, 124; Belmont, 124; Vigilant, 124; Harrodsburg, 124; Fountain, 121; Gen. Corbett, 121; Gambetta, 121;
Osborne, 121; Wilfred Jay, 121; Bay Ridge, 121; Furloss, 100 ib. tain, 121. Geo. Corbett, 121; Gambetta, 121; Oshorne, 121; Wiffred Jay, 121; Bay Ridge, 121; Furiosa, 103 l8.
Third Race-Furse $250; seven furiongs, Littlefelow II, 122; Trinidad, 122; Glendale, 122; Van, 123; Hermitage, 117; Ida Bell, 199; Lady Archer, 199; Leclar, 102; Leclar, 104; Gracher, 106; Leclar, 104; Gracher, 106; Leclar, 106; Caracherer, 104; Henry George, 104; Fegana, 106; Clay Pate, 104; Grache, 94; Manie, 94 lb.

APPRAISER STEARNS IS ACTIVE.

Acting Appraiser Stearns says he is being treated unfairly in being quoted as making mendations for the removal of several sasistant appraisers and examiners had been made, and were now in the hands of Secretary Fairchild awaiting his decision.

Appraiser Stearns was very busy this morn-apparently disabled.

She has a signal flag flying, but the weather is so hazy that it is impossible to determine whether it is a signal of distress or not.

ON A MUDDY TRACK. Seized as He Was Recocking His Pistol Patrick Dempsey made a desperate attempt Victory or Defeat. o assassinate Frederick Farrar, the chief